

Assistant Research Scientist

Bruker BioSpin seeks a highly motivated NMR Spectroscopist to support the research and development efforts for our business development group in Billerica, MA. Responsibilities include data acquisition, processing and analysis of a wide assortment of materials, including but not limited to, dietary supplements, botanicals, chemicals, tissues and biofluids. The successful candidate will be responsible for build-up and use of NMR spectral bases and also participate in software, hardware and method development/testing to produce high quality products.

Job Requirements:

- A Bachelor's degree or Master's Degree in chemistry or biochemistry or a related field.
- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Ability to work independently and in teams
- Excellent organizational skills with attention to detail

Highly Desirable:

- Experience with NMR spectroscopy
- Experience with natural products chemistry
- Experience in the dietary supplement, chemical or pharmaceutical industry

Bruker BioSpin is dedicated to designing, manufacturing and distributing life science and manufacturing tools based on magnetic resonance. Bruker BioSpin offers a comprehensive and competitive benefits package including medical, dental, 401(k), paid vacation, holidays and tuition reimbursement. Bruker Corporation is an Equal Employment Opportunity and Affirmative Action employer.

Please send resume, cover letter and salary requirements to: bbio.jobs@bruker-biospin.com and refer to job 'Assistant Research Scientist' in your cover letter.

No agencies or phone calls please.

Bruker BioSpin
15 Fortune Drive
Billerica, MA 01821